About the Program

This program offers a well-supported direct enroll semester abroad experience for students of any major with interests in European politics and affairs, cross-cultural studies, or international/European business management.

Students can attend courses at the University of Strasbourg’s political science school (Sciences Po Strasbourg) or at the business school (EM Strasbourg Business School).

European Politics/EU Studies

Sciences Po Strasbourg is dedicated to providing top-level multidisciplinary education and is particularly renowned for its expertise in European studies and political science.

International/European Business

EM Strasbourg Business School is one of the top 15 business schools in France and maintains the prestigious AACSB International Business Accreditation.

Semester highlights: 3-day excursion to Brussels, Belgium and 1-day excursions to Frankfurt and Heidelberg, Germany

Co-curricular and course-related excursions: visit EU institutions, companies, castles, cultural organizations, museums, etc.

Strasbourg: The Capital of Europe

Strasbourg is a diverse, modern and multicultural city with centuries of history and a fascinating place for students to study abroad. As one of Europe’s capital cities, it is an important center for politics, culture, business, government, and education.

As the formal seat of the European Parliament, Council of Europe and Court of Human Rights, this is the ideal location for students studying political science, international relations, and international business.

Co-curricular visits to historical, cultural, economic, and European sites in France and Germany are integral to the semester program, including an excursion to Brussels, Belgium.
